

Chumleigh July 1982

Jewell Cottage SS 666 185

Coleton Mill – July 1982

Coleton mill.

Chulmleigh Flood
July 1982

Seaton – December 1989

SEA FRONT, SIDMOUTH 17 DECEMBER 1989

FLOODING OF PROPERTIES TO THE WEST OF VELATOR QUAY 26 FEBRUARY 1990

Dawlish Warren - 2000

Bampton - 2000

Braunton - 2004

Also flooded in 2012
when 65 properties were affected

East Devon Flood 30 October 2008

- 400 Properties flooded
- 300 from surface water
- Major Incident Declared
- 187mm of rain fell in 2hrs and approximately 600mm to 900mm of ice.

APEX
news and pictures
www.apexnews.com

Picture by Theo Moya/apexnewspix.com 30/10/08.

The aftermath of a freak overnight hail storm in Ottery St Mary, Devon. The freak storm dumped two inches of hail and rain in six hours leading to serious flooding

Ottery St Mary

Over 100 properties were flooded in OSM

Feniton – October 2008

30/10/2008 08:20:39

30/10/2008 08:20:50

Modbury – 7 July 2012

230 residential and commercial properties flooded across Devon

Axminster 7 July 2012

One of the 67 Properties flooded at Axminster.
125mm of rain fell on the Axe Catchment.

Buckfastleigh – November 2012

Dawlish 2014

Over 250 properties were flooded during the Winter of 2014

Kingsbridge 2014

Exmouth – February 2014

Barnstaple – August 2020

Newton Poppleford May 2023

63 properties flooded
after 75mm to 90mm
fell in 1.5hrs 128
properties were flooded
in the area.

Kenton – September 2023

Kenton - September 2023. Up to 70mm of rain recorded in an hour .

Exebridge – January 2023

Weycroft, nr Axminster 7 December 2023

Scene of evacuation

In 2023, 500
homes were flooded in Devon

Summer flash floods

Severe thunderstorms are most likely between May and August.

Why prepare a community emergency plan

- Understand the risk
- Be prepared
- Look after yourself until emergency services arrive
- Preparing helps save lives and minimise damage