

Introducing Doink

Rising rates of sexually transmitted infections in young people living in the southwest is proof that the message of wearing a condom to protect yourself and your partner is more important than ever. Last year, there was a 32% increase in new STI diagnoses among those under the age of 25 in Devon. It is hoped that the new service will play a crucial role in tackling this trend, helping to reduce onward transmission of STIs.

For that reason lets us introduce you to Doink. the new way for young people aged 13-24 in Devon and Torbay to get free condoms, dams and lube.

Devon & Torbay – Doink (online service)

Postcode and age used to determine service availability

The desktop view of the Doink website features a navigation bar with links for 'About', 'STIs', 'Condoms', 'Blog', 'Support', and 'Sign In'. The main heading reads 'Your online sexual health clinic. Free NHS sexual health services online.' Below this is a section titled 'Check for services in your area. Simply enter your details below.' which contains three input fields: 'Age' (with '18' entered), 'Postcode' (with 'EX4 4JS' entered), and 'Gender' (with 'Male' selected in a dropdown menu). A large blue button labeled 'Register to order' is positioned below the form. At the bottom, there is a link for 'Already Registered?' and a black button labeled 'Sign In'.

The mobile view of the Doink website shows the 'Doink' logo at the top, followed by the text 'Sexual Health Services – SH.UK'. A blue banner with 'SH.UK' is overlaid on the 'Doink' logo. Below the logo, it says 'Devon & Torbay Condom Service' and 'Provided by Devon and Torbay Sexual Health'. A message states 'Please register or login to access this service.' with two buttons: a blue 'Register' button and a black 'Login' button. At the bottom, a small text block reads 'SH.UK offers a range of free sexual health service such as STI testing, treatment and contraception across the UK'.
